

Dear

Dear Mr. Inaor, I am glad to Pray, come to Mrs Inaor my sincere thanks for your cordial invitation to spend a week at Nahant.

I accept it more gladly, - I wish I could ~~add that some the~~ have act upon it immediately. But the arrival of my Brother's family makes that impossible, and the uncertainty of when they depart me the privilege you so kindly offer of naming the time.

Pray I, then, look forward to the future for the pleasure derived me at the present moment of visiting Mrs Inaor & your self at the charming sea-side home where you have created & combined the attractions of both town & country of which I always heard so much ~~or~~ My Mrs's ^{parting} words on Board the Persia were of grateful remembrance to you & family.

With cordial regards to Mrs.
Jane & the young ladies I am your truly obliged
D. W.
